Teamwork Challenge

Blockbuster Film Making - Do you & your team want to have your very own 5 minutes of fame? Have you always wanted to shout the words Lights, Camera, Action!!

You and your team will be joining the halls of fame and entering the billion dollar industry of the Hollywood Blockbuster Movie. This is the opportunity to be the hero, the baddy or even that monster from outer-space, the possibilities are as endless as your imagination.

The Drain Game - This is a head to head race, but on this occasion the slower the better. Teams will be given a set time to build a track out of the materials provided; once this has been completed teams will roll a ball down the track, the team that has the last ball to arrive at the end win.

Egg Launcher - An excellent finale activity whereby teams build a catapult to launch their eggs. With a couple of twists this makes for a highly entertaining activity.

Whistle Stop - Using musical instruments for instructions teams must navigate their blindfolded sheep through a course to pick up 'rewards' & earn valuable points.

Toxic Quest - All team members are required for the success of this mission, to ensure the safety of the endangered species.

Photographic Challenge - Instant Polaroid cameras are issued & photographic answers must be given to the tasks and questions that the teams are given to complete.

Kryptonite - A combination of physical & mental challenges. Teams are given 4 puzzles & initiative tests to complete, but teams must climb a 'rock face' to collect their instructions.

Safe Breaker - A race against time to break the safe code using the clues given, once the safe is open teams must complete a task requiring all team members input.

Blind Fold Tent - An excellent team exercise requiring teams to be split into pitcher & instructors. Pitchers will be blindfolded & under the guidance of the instructors (via radio) pitch a tent.

Treasure Hunter - Teams, under starters orders will compete to collect as much hidden treasure as possible with the aid of hand held GPS Navigation, compass, map & cryptic clues. Each team collects one piece of treasure from each destination, making this a very competitive challenge. This activity is also available as a stand-alone event.
